

2085 Washington Ave.,
New York City, Nov 10, '95.

Dear Friend Deane:-

I haven't heard from you in an age - more or less - and would like to know if your letters have gone astray. Everything else has been received since I have been here, it seems. I think some of making my home down here - a region familiar in earlier years.

Good botanical ground, too, for awhile. Haven't done much in that line, of late, but have managed to write a list which, I believe almost completely represent my ex. herb.

It is enclosed herewith for your early examination. Please note such as you desire and I will forward them as soon as possible. It may not be very soon, however, for my herb. is still in Bridgeport and may not be accessible until in my quarters here. It is packed ready for shipment at any moment.
Knowing what you want I can be sure to reserve it or all for the earliest shipment, meanwhile sending my lists to others. I can do this because I know exactly how many and the exact condition of about everything I have. The list can in this way be kept true to quantity of supply. As soon as I can get them I shall use the check-lists for exchanges, but this is the best I can do now, and I know you should have first choice among my correspondents. I greatly appreciate the many kindnesses you have shown me and shall take pleasure in selecting the best string command for your herb.

Have a list at hand now of some 800 species (N. Y. mostly) it being numbered in accordance with the A. A. S. list, but I can't get at that until I unpack my library, which also is still in B. port.

Shall be glad if the facilities N. Y. now affords for students of botany. Am within a short walk or ride of proposed botanical garden, also. - a delightful place.

Hope you have had a very successful season - every way! Your study of seedlings must have been particularly rich in its yield of specimens.

Do you want series of Elodia trees seedlings. Have a fair supply. Some other things I may have mentioned, too, but don't remember what they are, just now.

I shall be pleased to hear from you at your earliest convenience. May address me as per heading until further notice. Is ever

Sincerely yours

F. W. Eames.

Eames, Edwin Hubert. 1895. "Eames, E.H. Nov. 10, 1895." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/164559>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/288993>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.