

Rutland, Vt, Feb. 8, 1898.

Walter Deane,

We at last got back home and selected your desiderata. There is about 20 of them and I think there was 5 due from last year.

Have you found your Aster tardiflorus var.^(?) yet?

Hope you have Carex varia, Muhl. for me, as I am not sure I have anything now but ~~by~~ C. communis, Bailey.

Had a letter from Mr. Williams the other day saying he would exchange as soon as he could get time He appears to be a man after my own heart for he said he did not exchange the regular exchangers did but liked to supply his friends with whatever he could. Have a number of such friends, some like Pres. Brainerd I always feel in debt to, while others the reverse is true. Am very much pleased with the Rhodora. If there is anything you do not care for in the package don't count. There are some I shall hope to supply better another year.

Yours truly
W. W. Eggleston

Eggleston, W. W. 1898. "Eggleston, Willard Webster Feb. 8, 1898." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/164559>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/289036>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.