Dear Mr. Deane:

I am very glad that you enjoyed lunching with me yesterday and meeting some of your old boys. I will come to see you on Monday afternoon next, February second. I shall arrive probably shortly after four. I cannot tell now the exact time, because on Monday afternoon I hold a motion session, which sometimes is quite short and at other times lasts until after four. I judge, however, from your letter that the exact hour of my arrival is not of importance to you.

It was very nice to see you again after so many years, and I am looking forward to seeing your herbarium.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Walter Deane,
29 Brewster Street,
Cambridge, Massachusetts.
