Germantown, Phila., Pa. Dec. 6. 1897

Dear Mr. Beane,

Yours have placed on my personal desk, your kind letter of 6th. It is very pleasant to me to see your handwriting once more, and to read your good wishes for me.

As for my health it is about the same. I have not so far from home, and nowhere from home at night. Otherwise I feel well, and if ^{it} I do not get worse than it is for a few years more, I shall have cause for thankfulness.

I have just finished the M. S. S. of the Botany of the Lewis & Clark Expedition. A copy will come to you when ready. It was a pleasant surprise to me ~~at~~ these specimens after having been buried for nearly a century.

Sincerely yours Thomas Meehan

Meehan, Thomas. 1897. "Meehan, Thomas Dec. 8, 1897." Walter Deane correspondence
