

East Greenwich R.I.
Dec 18th 1873

Dear Sir

I received your letter suggesting an exchange of ferns several days ago and should have answered before if I had not been very much engaged.
It will give me great pleasure as far as I am able to accede to your proposition. I regret however that I am unable to furnish you any of the ferns that you speak of particularly in your letter.
I had only a very few and these have long since been disposed of. I can however furnish some of your desiderata.

I have marked on your Catalogue which I return herewith those which I can furnish at the right hand thus & those which I would like duplicates thus P. I should be glad to receive any of these latter as many as ~~the~~ of which I shall send you shall call for so many

I shall send my check by mail in a few days

I am

Very truly yours

J. W. Burgdon

Congdon, Joseph Whipple. 1873. "Congdon, Joseph W. Dec. 18, 1873." George Edward Davenport correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/173592>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/290530>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.