Feb. 17, 1897

Dear Mr. Davenport,

Through very great carelessness on my part, the microscope, though specially wrapped for you, was not put on the table Friday night. From today till Monday, it is at your service.
Shall I send it to your house, or will you call for it? Please send note, if you can, by some person in your vicinity.
Yours very truly
L. L. Damm
