

Charlotte, Vt.

Aug., 29th, 1874.

Very dear Mr. Savinport:

I have been detained at home a week longer than I expected to be when I wrote you last, and only start for the north today. I have a hope that I shall find Mr. Faxon there; but if he comes to Charlotte, next week I shall hardly fail to meet him; as I shall doubtless return home by the middle of the week.

Very dear old Swamp of which I once gave you a description yields us in abundance another treasure, Botrychium simplex.

Be sure I shall not fail to fulfil as far as possible the requests of one to whom I owe so much. Yours faithfully,

C. C. Pringle.

I enclose photographs of my plain Scotch pen.

Pringle, Cyrus G. 1874. "Pringle, C.G. Aug 29, 1874." George Edward Davenport correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/175072>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/290770>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.