

Charlotte, Vermont.

Dec., 4th, 1878.

My Dear friend,

Mr. Geo. E. Davenport.

All your valuable
sendings as well as your long and interesting letter, have come safely to hand. Every thing deeply appreciated. I feel and relieved to hear that my box did not cause you more trouble than pleasure. It lacked some things which I hope is - to supply you in abundance. Did I not select Cypripis pubescens and C. parvifl.?

You can not imagine how desperately
I am struggling under all my cares and duties.
The Board of Agriculture meetings is full operation
two weeks before I am ready to leave home!
A pile of letters whenever I return for a day or two. Next Feb. you may have a letter from me. Yours as ever,
C. C. Pringle.
