

H Charlotta, Vt., 20, Jan., 1843.

My Dear Friend: Your letters of Jan. 8th and 18th full of matter that interests me greatly come while I am in the midst of my distribution & sets of 500 copies and many large collections, work enough almost to make me forget his own name. But I am getting near the end, there needs of mounting, etc. I want to get my herbarium into perfect order before I leave it again. Have patience with me, I never then half believe that I shall yet get you those Arizone ferns and others. I was full of to travel wherever I please, wherever I can; and with the extensive patronage I now enjoy, I feel my cherished purpose may be realized. I have no idea where Mr. Sargent has invited (I hear nothing of it.) I hear in mind Dr. Parry's advice to keep clear of entangling alliances. Yours truly, C. L. Pringle.

NOTHING BUT THE ADDRESS CAN BE PLACED ON THIS SIDE.

Mr. Geo. C. Sampson, 9 Hamilton Place,
Boston, Mass.

Pringle, Cyrus G. 1883. "Pringle, C.G. Jan 20, 1883 [postcard]." George Edward Davenport correspondence
