

Charlotte, Vt., 15 Aug., 1893.
Dear Mr. Sampson,

H. S. Parry was sick with a malarial fever, and had to give up the Colo. trip. Then I turned again to search Arizona, but I am disappointed and have had to give up going west again at least for this year. Could not find a good assistant. The hoped-for intelligence of sufficient rain in Arizona did not come, and when in view of these facts I thought of going alone (a course almost necessitated by the depressed state of my purse,) the fears and distress of my mother were such that I had to stop talking about going. I have thought of visiting Boston and Maine (Mr. Ktadus), but am too much discouraged and too doubtful for even that. I would have started for Ktadus this week had I secured good company. Can't get up enthusiasm enough to undertake alone so hard a trip. If you thought we could find Cryptotis montana there would you not be willing to go with me? At my expense?

Yours faithfully,
C. G. Fernald.

NOTHING BUT THE ADDRESS CAN BE PLACED ON THIS SIDE.

240 P

8-17-83

Mr. Geo. C. Sampson

8, Hamilton Place,

Boston, Mass.

Pringle, Cyrus G. 1883. "Pringle, C.G. Aug 15, 1883 [postcard]." George Edward Davenport correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/175072>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/290808>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.