

H

Charlotte, N.C.

30, Sept., 1883.

Dear Mr. Davenport:

I am glad to hear from you by your welcome letter of the 27th, that you have had so good success in photography.

I have put up a send to the express office at the first opportunity the tripod (I had the other will pack better,) and enclose herewith the $6. you need to cover expenses of exchange, etc.

Don't send back the camera, etc., until you have taken all the views you would like to have; for I am doing nothing else than putter traps nowadays. Jimmy and I have been out every <sup>work</sup> day since you left (excepting two rainy days,) and have secured about 100 bushels of grapes already.

Parish is to be married Oct., 3rd in Newark, N. J. You may expect to receive a call from him on the 8th or 9th. I trust my poor friend is getting one of the best of wives.

I am deeply grateful to you for bearing in mind my unhappy situation. I had a selfish interest in your proposed visit to Mr. Piper, being in hopes my two dear friends would hold a council over my case, and thereafter shed on me a ray of hope.

But I do want to undertake another botanical journey. Do you notice that the yellow fever adds another terror to the west coast of Sonora, where I have wanted to fulfil my mission in Feb.?

Yours sincerely,
C. C. Pringle.

Pringle, Cyrus G. 1883. "Pringle, C.G. Sept 30, 1883." George Edward Davenport correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/175072>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/290810>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.