Charlotte, Vermont

11, Feb., 1884.

Dear Mr. Sampson,

I hasten to remit the balance, $10.38 you wrote.

Friday I spent several hours most pleasantly making myself familiar with the new photo. outfit. Thanks to your careful directions I had no trouble in doing so. I am charmed with the outfit; I should think I might do all I wish with it.

I hope you will receive back your first love, and find much more happiness with it. I fancy I shall not often use the pair of lenses.
With this Darlot W. A. you make capital pictures. I only hope I can approximate to your excellence. Your ingenuity will easily prevent the leakage of light on the right-end.
I have thought strips of black velvet pasted in the right place would do it.

While waiting for a chance to send it to the Ex. Office I may take a few views, and send to you in the small holder, to be developed.
If so please print two or three pictures and send here to my name.

I am now waiting for Harry to come back from Canada and take charge of affairs.

I now think (as I hear that vystation in S. Arizona owing to a mild winter is more advanced than I supposed, and as Dr. Gray hopes later to secure for me passes to help me cross the Mex. R.R.) I shall go right to Tucson and travel first through the warm low desert country to the S.W. Yours patiently and faithfully, C. G. Pringle.
