

Charlotte, Vermont.

H 11, Oct., 1884.

My dear friend,

I take pleasure in sending you by mail, (Reg. Pk'g.) my anemoid. I shall have in use for it - this fall, I think. Open with thumb nail.

I also send with it - my Ruby lantern to let you to have at my expense a new glass inserted. This was broken early in the season by the carelessness of my man, and I had to use a candle concealed in a box with P.O. paper. It looks more doubtful about my visiting Boston, as I shall not need to go to Cambridge, and shall need to save every dollar for another journey; it may be to Mexico and why.

Yours faithfully,
C. G. Fingle.

NOTHING BUT THE ADDRESS CAN BE PLACED ON THIS SIDE.

Mr. Geo. C. Starbuck,
8 Hamilton Place,
Boston,
Mass.
