

Charlotte, Vermont.

11, May, 1888.

Dear friend,

Thanks for your letter and postcard. Last evening I heard again from Prof. Sargent, and am expecting to start on Monday.

Will not now try to have the collodion plates.

No I can't manage my lens for natural size views of small things; and are much reduced. It would be a good thing to have a Dallmeyer lens; but $7.50 is too much money for me to spare this year.

This is a good Bye from

Yours faithfully,

C. G. Pringle.
