

answered
June 19.

Mrs. James Horner

Tuftonboro

New Hampshire

June 13th

My Dear Mr Deen

just a few lines to let you know that I am in the land of the living I have been looking for a letter from you for some time as you said in your last letter that you would soon write I am getting better and I am able to sit out on the Piazza but I am not very strong and I never expect to be much better as I was 85 years old last Thursday I had a nice letter from dear Charley Hopkinson last night with a check for 20 dollars in it and when I got abel to sit up he sent me 50 dollars to pay my doctors Bill he as sugard to me I dont know what he would ^{do} only that he sends no help as we are both quite feble and poor I try to get along without begging and so far I have not asked help from any person but my last sickness cost me so much and my Doctor Bill was so much that I feel poor Dear Mr Deon I am not going to write you such a long letter this time for I am afraid my last letter disgusted you it was such a long rambling letter I hope you are well and and please let me hear from you soon Mrs Charley thinks he may come to see me some time this summer as one of his daughters is going into a camp in New Hampshire and he says if he can get up to see her that he will try to get over to see us now I will not write any more now and I hope I will hear from you when you can find time to write to your old Servant

Annie M Horner
Canton, N. H.

06-13. "Horner, Annie M. Jun. 13 [no year]." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/159798>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/291096>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.