My dear Mr Deane

I am racing with old Father Time today, neck and neck, to turn the corner into 1904 with indebtedness squared and an easy conscience

May the New Year have for Mrs Deane and yourself a great deal of happiness and abundant prosperity

I delight to recall that three hours of bonhomie and good fellowship that we enjoyed together in Nov. when will Mrs Deane and yourself give us the pleasure of making you feel so perfectly at home? or at least trying it?

Fernald has been here for two days and we greatly enjoyed his visit and his talks and researches in our herbariums

Miss Hay is well and joins me in kindest regard in seasonable goodwishes for Mrs Deane and yourself

Sincerely Yours G. U. Hay
