

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.
SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT, COURT HOUSE, BOSTON.

Dec. 2, 1920

My Dear Mr. Deane:-

I have not forgotten your exceedingly kindness of last month, or upon other occasions. I had hoped to examine the pamphlets with more care than I have as yet been able to give, before writing you in acknowledgment. However, I have looked them over now than once, and ~~they~~ have incited me to attempt to complete the Brewster collection.

I have quite a number of additional terms in my own collection, and yesterday mailed a copy of the Birds of the Lake Region of the Iberian Peninsula. It is hard to get. I noted with interest your part in its preparation. I think I have all of Mr. Brewster's earlier publications except one or two in the Annals of the Society. I hope to get these.

Your Lott's pamphlets are also of much interest.
I have quite a number of other separates by him.
I shall collect them and hope that I have all of his Audubon's steers.

Thanking you again
I am Sincerely Yours
Walker Deane Esq. Charles D. Jones
