New York June 3/88

My dear Sir

The plates have just arrived, much to my joy, for I am very anxious to see the My Bulletin distributed. The fern is very pretty, & the engraving is elegant. I congratulate you ~~on~~ ^{for} both. The extra Bulletin will be sent at your request; but there is no charge for them. It has always been customary to send a number of copies gratis to authors of new species.

Truly Yrs.

W. R. Seab.

P.S. It was impossible to insert the words "With a Plate" after "New Fern" in your article as the matter was all in type. This will go on the cover, however.

Dr. R. H.

I hope we shall hear from you again ~~at~~ soon, with some other good things.

Gerard, W. R. 1880. "Gerard, William R. Jun. 3, 1880." George Edward Davenport correspondence
