Mr. Walter Deane,

Dear Sir:

I beg to formally acknowledge the receipt, through Mr. C. A. Weatherby, of 140 specimens of plants collected in the eastern United States by J. H. Churchill, and referred to in your correspondence with Dr. William R. Maxon. They are entered on our records as a gift from you, and are a very acceptable addition to the National Herbarium.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "W de C Ravenel". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

W. de C. Ravenel,
Acting Assistant Secretary.
