

the Frampton. Dr. Kennedy probably knew the Library owned the Ternaux copy as well as another. He is fortunate to own a copy.

I should like to have heard your address. I think nothing would ever be as nice as our evenings and other times in your corner room at Jaffrey where we learned such stores as have lived us all our lives.

The Dorances and Mrs. A. are all at home I think.
Herbert Dorance's small son born Dec. 24th has been through quite a serious

February 11, 1913

84 WATERMAN STREET
PROVIDENCE

Dear Mr. Deane,

The "Odd Volumes Viset" arrived safely. I hope you kept it as long as you really wanted it. I should have liked to have given it to you but was not sure that I was free to do so.

I am glad it arrived so opportunistically at your end.

I am enclosing the data you wished, and a derivation which, if not satisfactory, may be replaced by another Tom says. As to operation but is I understand doing well now.

We think the subway will distract - only temporarily at first.

The Librant is to have a party on January 28, at which Mr. W. Lindley is to read a paper on "Ranger Books." The John W. Lindley Brown is coming from Newport to receive the guests.
I will send you a cutting of the account as it will be of much interest to you. I feel sure. We are very busy just now with several other matters. We the large one all too short.
We are very sorry to Mrs. T. come and thank you for your very good letter.

Very sincerely yours
Rebecca G. S. Hall

Steere, Rebecca P. 1913. "Steere, Rebecca P. Feb. 11, 1913." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/160656>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/296063>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.