

16 Cabot Street,
Providence, R. I.

And March 31st, 1929.
Dear Mr. Deane

I am writing you to send you Rebecca's love and to tell you that she has gone ahead to join mother and Bob.

The operation she had last summer was helpful to her but could not cure her.

Maybe with her characteristic unselfishness she never even told you she had been ill. Her first thought always was to help others. Rebecca and I had talked of bringing Thomas and John to call on you some day this Spring, and I hope I may still do so.

Sincerely yours,
Jos. C. Steere
