

January 16, 1914.

Dear Mr. Deane:

I want to thank you for the five dollar gold piece that you sent me for my birth-day.

In one of your letters you asked me to tell you about my play. I started out for track Friday afternoon, training that afternoon so it did make me very stiff, but yesterday we had quite a hard practice so you are quite stiff. In a week or so I won't know the difference.

are quite lonely now

I do hope that you and Mrs. Deane will get time to come to Washington very soon.

Thanking you again for the present that you sent me.

From your namesake,
Walter Deane of the Academy and Harvard.
His father is principal of the High School of one of the cities about forty miles out of Boston.

Martha went back to College ~~also~~ Tuesday so we

I have not decided yet whether to take up sprinting or long distance running, I want to see what I can do first.

There is a boy here in the Post Office Department who is from Massachusetts. He has been telling me a number

Rose, Walter Deane. 1914. "Rose, Walter Deane Jan. 11, 1914." Joseph Nelson Rose letters to Walter Deane

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/160655>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/297777>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.