

Nov 23 1893

Dear Deane,

You must have learned of me in a roundabout way — perhaps from the land of Prester John, for your information is all at fault.

As a matter of fact I shall hardly be at work this term. Have no idea of appearing till January, cannot go down stairs then; am living on milk (no honey!) — and am then as the wandering Jew, what there is of me, remains in — as ever

Thine

Barney
