

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct 6 1903

My dear Dean,

Though at my Lab,
I am too ill to pen more than a line, that is to tell you I am not a porcupine, Was I not sick and ye visit at me? I do not go off yr pinned. It is all right about Delaware - and I am so glad you know and approve him. I am very much worse of late, but may see daylight.
Am advised even by my own doctor to consult Dr Putnam of Boston, Keen of Phil, also advises it and says I ought not to suffer so.

Crazily yrs
W. W. B.
