

Cushing St. Prov, Apr 15-

Dear Old Deane, How glad I shall be to see thee. 'What a treat!' For this alone is life worth living. I can tell you now then I can with L, in fact, am for too busy with lectures, papers, classes, papers, for a very uncertain future, and above all our "Yip" - to spin any kind of a satisfactory gain. Surely I never had in such a trouble & had no daylight, and there is Mr Carnegie who I am sure, if he knew the distressing situation would be glad to relieve it.
I have friends helping - but am not myself at all hopeful. But Smithy we'll try to have a real Yompa! Live & love! Yours ever Parker
