PROVIDENCE

December 9. / 82

My dear Deane,

Did you not tell me that you had not a copy of 'My Boyhood at West Point', & desired one, I have succeeded in getting the last possible one unless some fellow sells out. If you have it but I'll delight in sending it as a Xmas gift. So, please let me know. Did I tell you that I fully agree with you as to the Cape Cod of Hama-mehis, I absolutely only our notes to fellow some other fellow - and this is the secret, I can often be caught this way, Moral; be more selfreliant, They have sent me a little Gorseon booklet of wild flowers of the Waterland; perfectly lovely, Cold, Blurry today.

Yours ever
Bailey-
