

other day - deliciously ordered. On the 17th - met my bro of Harvard's & celebrated his Golden Wedding at Fred-erickton N.B. They had a great time, so was there & will tell you all about it. We are all very sympathetic with Mrs Deane & hope she may rapidly recover health, hope & strength - Colling-worth is from Prov. I think I have not heard of all summer. My morning-glories are at top of house & one - Romeo - peeps in at my window, Mercutio is a good second - and the nurse scrambles in the rear!

Dear Deane,

We are all
so sorry that your Rash cannot visit us with your wives, he must look for such a call another year. However, he will be glad to see the 3 of you
time this month if possible, I am so
ella lighter than this time last year & feel pretty healthy. I might think of making a little party of my physician's party.
Saw lots of Milkmaids
in bloom that the
