

BROWN UNIVERSITY
PROVIDENCE

November 23, 1913

Dear Deane,

I was to have gone on to N. H.
this morn to the racket described within as guest of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity - expenses paid. Then for two days I was to be Peggy's guest & on Wed' return with herd Whit (who was to accompany me) for Thanksgiving at home.

But the best laid schemes of mice and Psi U's, suches & children, went a-gley & yesterday I fell very darned sick & had to give up all the glorious scheme & am bearing it like a little man and your sadly disappointed but

Ever faithful friend

without ME,
Peggy, however, will be herd Whit don't go!
