

246 Devonshire St - Sept. 9, 1913

It's a long way from Cambridge to Boston — Sometimes - Your card of Aug. 30. appeared & we yesterday wondered - has been hibernating in the meantime is a question Very likely in our own Norfolk P.O. where certain peculiarities have been known - I have looked the spritely & interesting article on Le Roy to which you refer - & have enjoyed it - Thank you for directing my attention to it - also for Hymns Supplum - The Sacred Mice ^{of Cambridge} produce lots of interesting things - do they not? And you have eyes to see them - Your wish that the "newcomer" in M.L.F.'s home might be a boy has come true I hear - and I have written him - (not the "newcomer" but M.L.F.) Is not it fine? I am so glad too - It's almost sailing time for J.R.C. - was glad to hear this D's voice this morning over the phone. Cordially Robert Ware

THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS ONLY

Mr. Walter Deane
79 Brewster St
Cambridge
Mass

Ware, Robert Allison. 1913. "Ware, Robert Allison Sep. 9, 1913." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/163304>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/304077>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.