

Your letter - remailed from Boston - came yesterday - It seems that my letter written before leaving home must have failed to reach you - for in it I gave you my address here - I am sorry it did not reach you. We are having some heavy rains since I wrote you from here - meadows are wet, roads are high. So that I have not been able to do some of the collecting I had planned
But we are enjoying our stay - and there is enough to do to keep us pleasantly occupied.
I am interested in Prof. Henshaw's letter - but it seems to me that he is on the wrong track! Or rather I should say I cannot see how the material I sent you can be from the source he suggests - Reread my letter sent you shortly after I sent you the material - more later - Greetings from in bath -

CANADA POST CARD

THE ADDRESS TO BE WRITTEN ON THIS SIDE

Mr. Walter Deane
~~Mr. Isaac Winter~~
Philbrook Farm
Shelburne N.H.
U.S.A.

Ware, Robert Allison. 1920. "Ware, Robert Allison Jun. 15, 1920." Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/163304>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/304088>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.