Annapolis Royal, N. S.,

July 23 1926

Dear Walter -

We are stopping here for 24 hours - because of the historical interest attaching to the locality - and visually centering into the remnants of the early fortifications.
It helps immensely in ~~visually~~ visualizing the beginning of white settlements in the country - as well as later events. - Today has been a glorious day. And the view from the ramparts down the Annapolis river is very lovely - Comfortable temperature and delicious air

We have an idea of continuing tomorrow by the comfortable bus "Evangeline" to Grand Pré - but may, so be, have after all, about 70 miles will anti again from our next destination

Faithfully
Bob
