

East Hartford, Conn.

19th February, 1916

Dear Mrs. Gleason:-

I certainly had hard luck trying to see you of late: two attempts, & this last visit to Cambridge and nothing accomplished.
But I'm still hoping for better luck next time.

I asked Miss Foster about the source of her picture and she said it was copied from one of a collection of Japanese drawings of birds bound up in a sort of pamphlet, as the titles are all in Japanese, she could give no further information.

I had a fine time at the Club dinner.
There seems to have been a division of counsel as to costume. I consulted a man whom I thought ought to know and was told to wear ordinary clothes; another member consulted another authority and was told to put on his dress suit — and we both obeyed orders. - But that didn't interfere with anyone's enjoyment.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

C. A. Seachrist

Weatherby, Charles Alfred. 1916. "Weatherby, Charles Alfred Feb. 19, 1916."
Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/163304>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/304116>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.