

P. A. WEAVER
11 WALL STREET
EAST HARTFORD, CONN.

Dec. 20, 1925

Dear Mr. Deane:-

I certainly did not mean to wait nearly a week before writing you; but since I got back at nine P.M. last Monday, occupied in my way by your friendly aid with my box of documents, I have been busy with something or other every moment - or so it seems - the climax having come with company for the last two days. Now the company is gone, the Christmas cards and presents nearly all sent off and I can take a few minutes for writing.

Because of the general rush, a little Christmas remembrance which I have and I am getting ready for you may be somewhat delayed and not reach you until after the proper date. We are very sorry but can't my wife help ourselves now.

The small package I sent you - without any accompanying message, alas - and which you may be saving for Christmas, contains only your keys, which I carried off in my rather hurried departure. I hope they reached you all right.

I was much interested to hear of the Shakespeare Club and the dinner,
of course the latter was a grand success, as well as a great occasion. I am much pleased if the flowers given you and Miss Brown any pleasure or contributed at all to the decorations.

I have another busy week ahead with Christmas and a good deal of piled up correspondence and other work. We shall have our Christmas dinner at the house of our neighbors and old friend (my mother's play mate in girlhood) Miss Corning.

I hope to be in Cambridge again in time for the next Club meeting on January first. Probably I shall leave here on that day and arrive in Boston
some time in the afternoon.

Love joins me in love to you and Miss Brown. We wish you both a very pleasant Christmas and a New Year full of all good things.

Yours as always

C. W.

Weatherby, Charles Alfred. 1925. "Weatherby, Charles Alfred Dec. 20, 1925."
Walter Deane correspondence

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/163304>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/304142>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.