

Manufacturing Pharmacists.

Lloyd Brothers,

Wholesale Druggists,
Court & Plum Streets.

Cincinnati, O.

September 6th, 1895

Mr. Walter Deane,
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Friend Deane:--

I trust the photogravures mailed you to-day will reach you in good condition. I have acted on your suggestion and enclose them in heavier pasteboards. I have become very much interested in fungi this summer, gradually learning the common species. It is a very difficult subject to master however owing to the scanty material in the way of literature that we have on the subject. I have completely remodelled my house, making the second and third stories into large library rooms, each room about seventy feet deep and seventeen feet wide. When I get the books back on the shelves I think the library

Manufacturing Pharmacists.

Lloyd Brothers,

Wholesale Druggists,

Court & Plum Streets.

Cincinnati, O.

2,

189

will make a very creditable appearance. What have you been doing all summer? I suppose you took your usual trip to the mountains. I spent a few days in Atlantic City and had a very agreeable outing.

With kind regards, I remain,

Yours truly,

C. G. Lloyd.

Dictated.

Lloyd, C. G. 1895. "Lloyd, Curtis Gates Sep. 06, 1895." Curtis Gates Lloyd letters to Walter Deane

View This Item Online: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/item/159647>

Permalink: <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org/partpdf/304862>

Holding Institution

Harvard University Botany Libraries

Sponsored by

IMLS

Copyright & Reuse

Copyright Status: Public domain. The BHL considers that this work is no longer under copyright protection.

This document was created from content at the Biodiversity Heritage Library, the world's largest open access digital library for biodiversity literature and archives. Visit BHL at <https://www.biodiversitylibrary.org>.