

München, Bavaria, July 24

Mrs. B. & I will probably go to the Alps next week.

Dear Anne:

We have been here nearly a week, and are now pretty well settled. We have engaged a governess for the children and have our rooms and pension also provided. The children are very happy, and Mrs. B. is falling into the strange ways very readily, and will, I think, soon like it. I shall leave here about Aug. 7, going to Berlin & Hamburg, thro' Holland and over to England.
I am after Rubus, & shall go to see the material at Vienna, also, if necessary. Rubus is in a bad way. Hope you are well.
We are. Munich is a delightful city. L. N. Bailey
