

ITHACA, N. Y.,

Jan. 10, 1889

My Dear Deane:

Dr. Haberer is heard from at last, and I send you his interesting letter to read. By this mail I also send his catalogue of Utica plants.

I shall make a desperate effort to get to the office this forenoon, and shall then be glad to look up the carices for Professor Wright.

Our promised nurse-girl never appeared, but another one applied, and she is a treasure. If we had had her during your visit we could have made things much pleasanter.

Snow.

Yours -
L. H. B.
