JOHN M. OTTER, Manager.

New York, Mch. 13, 1889

My Dear Dear:

Your "C. conjuncta"
is only a small C. stipata.
When once you see good fruit of C. conjuncta you will remember it.

I have returned the Californian cases. I have finished my study of C.
Novae-Angliae, and have arrived at a positive conclusion, and one which has surprised myself.
But C. deflexa var. Deanei

METROPOLITAN HOTEL,

Broadway and Prince Street.

JOHN M. OTTER, Manager.

New York, 188

must stand for all that I can
see. It is a nice plant, quite as good as the one with which I at first associated your name.

Yours truly,
A. H. Bailey
