My Dear Deane:

I am very sorry to hear of your illness, but hope that your hopes of recovery are fully realized before this.

Where do you spend your summer?

Farwell is in an interesting region, and he now makes fairly good specimens. A couple of years ago, he sent me the worst rubbish I ever saw. I gave it all to a student, and wrote Farwell that the specimens were abominable and that I should not even look them over. He took it - all in good part and wrote for hints. This year he sent me some very nice things in good condition. The outlandish names you mention are all my children. What a family I am getting! Something like a hundred christenings there must be in my new paper! My Herbarium contains more types of North American species than any other in existence! I can imagine how, in some future year, some new student of the genus will pull over my specimens and perhaps curse the maker of them! But they are all there, and all plainly labelled and explained. Nothing is in any way hidden.

Yours truly,

L. H. Bailey
