

Hudson & House,

M. HUDSON, Proprietor.

Lansing, (Mich.) June 3 1889

My Dear Deane: If I do not hear from you in a day or two, I shall fear that you are having a relapse. Out-mail is probably following me, and, I hope, will catch me soon.

This is a backward time here. Decoration day was ornamented with snow! Unprecedented. And all due, no doubt, to change of administration at Washington.

Houghton, Mifflin & Co. have asked me for another book. They are starting a series. Don't know where the time and pains are coming from.

Yours as ever,
T. H. Bailey
