My Dear Deane:

I never saw fruit of either Hemerocallis fulva or flava.

I shall be glad to get your package, even though I have everything you send. Your specimens are always good.

The older I grow the busier and meaner I get. I am one of the editors of American Garden, and the managing editor is coming up from New York to-morrow to hold out inducements for a closer connection—and more work.

Hope you are better by this time.

Yours in a jiffy,
Bailey
