

Jan. 8 1890

My Dear Deane:

I had your letter this morning and was glad to know that you got home with no more serious mishap than falling into your neighbor's lap. I can write only a line, for I can sit up but a little while at a time. I felt my cold tightening its hold all over me soon after I started from home, and Saturday afternoon, in Rochester, I was scarcely able to sit up for three or four hours. I got home with difficulty, and ~~got~~^{grew} steadily worse until last night, when I began to mend. The doctor began to feel anxious.

Remember us to Mrs. D. Mrs. Bailey is very much pleased with our visit, and it is needless to say that I am.

Yours -

L. H. Bailey
