

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 23 1890

My dear Deane;

I am glad to know that Mr. Morong is to be home in a month. I must manage some way to see him during the winter. I am building 3 more forcing-houses. I shall soon be able to do something, I hope.

Mr. Rand sends me a lot of Caries, which I shall examine at my first leisure. I have a collection from Colorado also.

What a magnificent thing Gent's new Silve is! Beyond my pile, though!

Yours truly
L. H. Bailey
