My Dear Deane:

I shall certainly have to accuse you of duplicity if you send me any more botanical doublet. The bean is as interesting as the apple. It is photographed and preserved. Double pistil.

Make me a specimen of Pyrus coronaria. Also of Prunus Americana and Viburnum Opulus, if you come across them.

All goes well here. I am now writing a bulletin on forcing cucumbers, and am making preparations for one on cultivated physalis. Hard knot this letter!

Yours truly
J. H. Bailey
