

Ithaca, N. Y., May 23 1892

My Dear Deane:

I have been home since Thursday and am improving daily. I hobble about with a cane like an old man. I have been out doors as far as my forcing-houses. I am feeling first-rate, but my locomotive powers are not good.

I have Kalsted's weeds, for Experiment Station. They are good specimens.

I don't know F. F. Woods' address. The specimen was sent me by J. M. Holzinger, Dr. Vasey's assistant at Washington. You might write him.

I long to get out-of-doors for a long tramp. I think that I can do so in a couple weeks.

Yours truly
L. H. Bailey
