My Dear Deane:

I have just returned from an absence of nearly a week and I find "Cape Cod" waiting for me. I am greatly obliged to you for it. It will make a nice addition to my growing list of outdoor books.

Yesterday on the train I met Mr. Dunningway, who had just seen you. I was glad to hear from you.

I have been in N.Y. attending a dinner given by the Vanderbilts, Depew, and others, and I tried my hand at an after-dinner speech. Considering the fact that I was neither hissed down nor hooted out, I feel very much complimented. I shall stay at home now for two or three days.

Yours truly,

L. H. Bailey
