

DEPARTMENT OF HORTICULTURE,
J. M. SAMUELS, Chief

WORLD'S COLUMBIAN COMMISSION.

OFFICE OF THE

Director-General of the Exposition.

Chicago, Ill. U.S.A. June 30 '93

My Dear Deane:

Yours of the 24th is here.
Don't fail to come when you can.
I shall try to call on your brother someday when I am in town.
I saw Dr Kennedy and family a few days ago. My stay here is partly in interest of Field, Forest & Garden Botany, and as soon as I get home this fall I shall take it up in earnest.
I am studying cultivated plants here, and am getting much help. I have an office in the Horticultural building where I loaf the golden days away. I am meeting many old friends and classmates, and am happy. I have sent for Sara to come to see me. She is now 6 years old and well advanced for her age, and I think that she will remember many things about the Fair. At any rate, I am looking forward to a happy time when she comes. She is a dear little girl and is lots of company to me.

It is now lunch time and I must go.

Yours,

L. H. Bailey
