SECRETARY-TREASURER.

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 23 1894

Dear Deane:

Welcome home! I am glad that you have had such a long and pleasant vacation. I hope that your cold is much better by this time.

No, I have not Leporina from America save a solitary mounted specimen. Wish I had it for you.

I will send the bulletins to Mr. Shute.

Prunus Besseyi is a Manual plant. It has heretofore passed as P. pumila, although Dr. Bessey has long insisted that it is distinct. I will Send you a specimen.

Your Sweet Mary (never heard that name before) is Chrysanthemum Balsamita,
Linn., var. tanacetoides, Boiss.

My wounds are nearly healed. They are all internal and nobody sees them.

Queer paper that Mt.
Washington sheet! Sometime
I must see the top of the Grand old Mountain.

Ever thine,

F. V. Bailey
