Ithaca, N. Y., Xmas 1894

Dear Deane: We had a christmas tree this morning and one of the pleasantthings was Riverly from you, old fellow! Mrs. Bailey had taken it out of the mail and had put it on the tree. Good! All the Burroughs treasures I have - Fresh Fields, Locusts and Wild Honey, Winter Sunshine, Peppacton, Wake Robin, and Riverly - and all but Wake Robin from you! You have my best thanks.

Ethel is now better, and I go off this afternoon to Chautauque Co.
Yours always
L. H. Bailey
