

DELANEY HOUSE,

O. H. WEBB, Proprietor.

✱ ✱ ✱

Vevay, Ind., June 14 1895

Dear Walter:

I find myself to-day strolling about this quiet nook on the Ohio river, wondering if I am in the great bustling world or on the planet Mars. No railroad has yet reached this dreamy place, and one comes and goes on the packet boats as he would have done a half century ago. The great river stretches down amongst the lazy hills, still dividing the north from the south, and the old romance still clings to the sloping banks of the "old Kentucky Shore". I am getting dizzy as I write, and I am now dropping into a snooze.

Yours forever,

L. H. Bailey
