Dear Deane:

I don't know who sent me the diabolical envelope. The letter has some advertisement in and came from Bryan's Country, Kansas City.

I had hoped to have my revision of Vitis done by to-day, but I had a runaway a few days ago and have not yet recovered.
My nerves ran away with me.
I completely lost hold of the reins for two or three hours, and nearly came very near a nervous collapse. So I am laying low, but shall get to work again quietly in a day or two.

Thine ever,

L. H. Bailey
